DAILY GAZETTE.

My Wife's got a New Piano.

The deed is accomplished. My wife has got a new piano, and now farewell to the travelling piano—farewell content and the evening papers, and the big cigars that make ambition virtue, and the immortal engines, whose rude throats the immortal stop. I cannot bid them farewell for one of them has just arrived. It came on a day. Six men carried it into the parlor, and it grunted awfully. It weighs a ton, shines like a mirror, and has carved cupids climbing up its sides. And such lungs—

when! My wife has commenced to play, and the first time she touched the machine, I thought we were in the midst of a thunder storm, and the lightning had struck the crockery chest. The cat with tail erect took a bee line for a particular friend upon a back fence, demolishing a six shilling pane of glass. The lady awoke, and the little fellow tried his best to beat the instrument, but he was not to be. It has himself been introduced into the house.

He says he is the last of Napoleon's grand army. He wears a large mustache, looks at me fiercely, and smells of garlic, and goes by the name of Count Rat-away-and-over-come-back-ly. He played an extract de opera the other night. He run his fingers through his hair twice, then grinned, then looked his eyes up at the ceiling, then he bowed his head, and then he came down on his fingers, and I heard a delightful sound, similar to that produced by a cello, and I was reminded of the tenor string of a fiddle. Down came another finger, and I was reminded of the wind whistling through a knot hole in a hen coop.

He touched his thumb, and I thought was in an orchestra listening to the distinct ring of a jackass. Now he run his fingers along the keys, and I thought of a boy rattling a stick upon a picket fence. All of a sudden he stopped, and I thought something had happened. Then came down both hands, and, oh, Lord! such a noise was never heard before. I thought a hurricane had struck the house and the walls were caving in. I imagined I was falling on my head, and a ton of coal was falling on my head, and the machine had busted when the

The Daily Gazette. City of Janesville. Wednesday Evening, July 11, 1860. Official Paper of the City. Republican Nominations. For President, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, OF ILLINOIS. For Vice President, HANNIBAL HAMLIN, OF MAINE. Republican Presidential Electors. AT LARGE: WALTER D. MCINDOE, of Marathon; DRADFORD RIXFORD, of Winnebago. FIRST CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT: W. W. VAUGHN, of Racine. SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT: J. Allen Barber, of Grant. THIRD CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT: H. Lindeman, of Jefferson. Republican Congressional Convention. SECOND DISTRICT. A Republican Convention for the Second Congressional District of the State of Wisconsin, will be held at the city of Janesville, on Wednesday the 22nd day of August, 1860, at 10 o'clock, P. M. for the purpose of nominating a candidate for member of Congress of said district, to be supported at the next general election. Each assembly district will be entitled to two delegates in said convention. The several assembly district committees are requested to take measures for the appointment of delegates to said congressional convention, from their respective districts. DAVID ATWOOD, CHARLES HOLT, NORMAN EASTMAN, J. C. CLANDIN, Dist. Com. Madison, June 23, 1860. No Union in the Democratic Party. The Douglas National Committee have issued a circular seating the idea of running a ticket in common with the Breckinridge party. They say that no one who desires the election of the Douglas ticket has ever countenanced for a single moment the proposition tending towards it. We are, therefore, to have two democratic parties in the field, and all democrats must make up their minds soon "under which king" they will serve. If they support Douglas they do it with a positive certainty that every vote given to their candidate aids so far to throw the election into the house, where no one party has a majority, and where there can be no election. The house being unable to elect, the choice of a vice president, who will become president, devolves upon the senate, which chooses from the two candidates having the highest number of votes at the election. Who are these likely to be? As regards one of them, Hamlin, certainly no one can have any doubt; it is quite as sure that the other must be the candidate who will receive the greatest number of votes in the southern states. According to present appearances, the Douglas ticket has no show of success in any southern state except Missouri, and even there it is uncertain. There are four parties in the field in that state, all nearly equally divided, and it would not surprise us at all if Lincoln should be successful. As Johnson, the Douglas candidate for vice-president, has no prospect of being one of the two highest returned to the senate, it follows that either Lane or Hamlin will be the next president, if there shall be no choice by the people. It can now be seen by Douglas democrats that every vote given to their candidate is a vote for old Joe Lane for president. He is notoriously incompetent; so entirely unfit that his nomination is considered a disgrace to the party. His election would be doubly obnoxious to the Douglas men, because of his incapacity and his connection with the Breckinridge party. He would be a mere tool in the hands of the faction which has nominated him, and was probably put upon the ticket with that design. It will be the grand aim of the Breckinridge party to prevent an election by the people, and, strange as it may seem, they are in some localities supporting the Douglas ticket for that purpose. They fear that Lincoln and Hamlin may be elected by the people, and thus their pet scheme of electing Lane will be spoiled. Our readers may see a notable instance of this kind of manoeuvring in the neighboring state of Illinois. There the prospects of the republican ticket are every day growing stronger, and to prevent its success, the Buchanan men are advocating the election of Douglas—not for the purpose of promoting his success, but for the purpose of preventing the success of the republican ticket. Thus we see the Douglas men, although no words of condemnation have been severe enough for them to apply to Douglas heretofore. The question is, Will the Douglas men help these men in their desperate and unprincipled game to elect Joe Lane to the presidency? They can only answer this question for themselves, but evidently the most certain method which they could adopt to prevent the success of the scheme of the Breckinridge men would be to vote directly for Lincoln and Hamlin.

Political News. When the Hon. Dan S. Dickinson first saw there was likely to be a disruption of the democratic party, he cried like a girl that had lost her sweetheart. It seems, however, that he has now dashed the tear drops from his eyes and assumed the stern mien and bearing of a warrior. He has drawn his sword for Breckinridge and Lane, and throwing the scabbard right in the faces of Douglas and Johnson, avows his determination to make the blade follow it.

Political News. The Ripon Times says that in the town of Green Lake, the republicans are already thoroughly organized for the campaign. It is informed by Col. Kinney that the result is as follows: whole number of voters 300—republicans 233, democrats, 45, persons who are undecided 17.

Political News. The Savannah (Ga.) Republican proposes a compromise in order to defeat Lincoln and Douglas. It is that Bell, Breckinridge and Lane withdraw, leaving Everett as the sole candidate for the vice presidency; then head the ticket with Hammond (Missile) for president.

Political News. There was a tremendous Douglas ratification meeting in Ashtabula, Ohio, a few days ago. There were just thirty persons present.

Political News. The Steubenville (O.) Union has raised the Breckinridge flag.

Political News. More Heat.—The Kalamazoo Telegraph says that Mr. Briggs, a ripe scholar, a fine speaker, and a ready writer, elected upon the democratic ticket last spring as clerk of the village of St. John, has renounced the doctrine of the administration party, and taken the stump for Lincoln and Hamlin. His influence will be made to tell very favorably during the campaign for the success of the people's candidate.

Political News. E. Y. Lane, Esq., of Davenport, Iowa, one of the firm of Lane, Lane & Co., has quit democracy and is now going strong for Lincoln.

Political News. The Bainbridge (Ind.) Argus has hoisted the names of Breckinridge and Lane at its mast-head for Presidency.

Political News. The Porter (Ind.) Democrat has also come out on the same side, and doubtless the administration papers of that state will generally support the Breckinridge ticket.

Political News. The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle has information coming direct from a friend in Texas, that the hero of San Jacinto has declared for Bell and Everett.

Political News. All the German press in Indiana, except one, are for Lincoln—three of them having abandoned the democracy and embraced republicanism.

Political News. The Douglasites of Kentucky are to hold a state convention at Louisville on the 11th of August, to nominate an electoral ticket for Douglas and Johnson.

Political News. The democratic electoral ticket already in the field is supposed to be nearly unanimous for Breckinridge and Lane.

Political News. The Lynchburg Republican, heretofore a strong Douglas paper, has hoisted the Breckinridge and Lane flag.

Political News. The scheme proposed by the democratic state committee in Pennsylvania to run an electoral ticket with pledges contingent on the result, is openly repudiated by the Breckinridge organization at Washington, which refuses all terms of alliance with the Douglas faction.

Political News. Mr. Hamilton of McDonough county, Ill., has come out for Lincoln and Hamlin. Mr. H. has been one of the wheel horses of the democratic party of that county.

Political News. Mr. Breckinridge has got a decidedly concave face. And we judge that in November he will find himself like his face—dislike.

Political News. The Tennessee delegations split into two pieces at Baltimore, and now each of the pieces has issued an address to the Tennessee democracy. There's no peace between the pieces—and no prospect of any.

Political News. Dr. Alex. Shields, for twenty odd years one of the leaders of the democratic party in Sangamon county, Ill., has come out from the "foul party" and joined the republicans. He recently made a strong speech at a republican meeting.

Political News. The Jackson democratic association of Washington, which has heretofore been an active campaign organization, has broken up after a stormy meeting and an animated struggle between the two wings of the ascendancy.

Political News. A meeting to ratify the nomination of Douglas and Johnson took place on Tuesday night at Washington. The stand was illuminated with numerous transparencies, etc. Resolutions endorsing the Cincinnati platform and non-intervention were passed. G. W. Brent of Virginia and others delivered speeches.

Political News. ANOTHER STRADDLE.—The Manitowish Herald, the old organ of the democracy in Manitowish county, raises both the Douglas and Breckinridge tickets at its mast-head—the latter topmost—and after saying that both nominations were "irregular" and therefore not binding, declares its intention, if no compromise is effected, to choose between them. The Herald "candidly admits" that its "choice is not Mr. Douglas," and then asserts—"In this state we understand that a number of prominent, intelligent, conservative democrats, have declared their intention to support Breckinridge and Lane."

Political News. With the defection already declared in this state, and more likely to take place, the prospect for Douglas in Wisconsin is extremely cheering!

Political News. NO ROOM FOR HOPE.—The Erie Observer, one of the most prominent democratic organs in Northern Pennsylvania, "gives it up" in the following lugubrious strain:

Political News. "We will not stultify ourselves—we will not compromise the position of this journal by misreading its readers with vain and delusive hopes, when there is NO ROOM FOR HOPE." The Observer, which has never been controverted either in theory or practice. NO political party divided can succeed.

Political News. We tried it in 1848, and a like result flowed from a like cause. And we are about to enact over again in 1860 the disastrous campaign of 1848. We know it is said "there is a silver lining to every cloud," but we apprehend it will take a "silver glass" at least four years long to see a "silver lining" in the "cloud" that spans the political horizon of the democratic party at this time.

Political News. UNDER WHICH KING.—An occurrence in one of the interior counties of New York indifferently illustrates the bewilderment into which the double-headed presidential nomination has thrown the democracy.—When the news of the nomination of Douglas flashed along the wires, a village postmaster summoned the "unfriendly" ring out of the gun and fired a salute. They had got about half through the allotted number of discharges, when a messenger from the telegraph office informed them that the seceders had nominated Breckinridge. "The d—l they have!" shouted the postmaster. Standing a moment in a brown study, he shouted, "Boys, there is no knowing for whose hands we may fall. Load for Breckinridge!"—N. Y. Tribune.

Political News. The well-known postmaster at Shopiere has a ready relief for this difficulty, which we commend to all straightened office holders. He defines his position as "a democratic postmaster," and loads for Breckinridge and Douglas with perfect impartiality.

Gov. Seward Coming to Michigan.—Letter from him. [From the Detroit Tribune, June 30.] It will be gratifying to the many friends of Gov. Seward in Michigan—and that embraces the republican party in the state—to be informed that he will, at an early day in the present campaign, visit Michigan, and address the people on the practical issues of the day. We give below a letter received from him on the subject, and invite the attention of every republican in the state to its contents. It breathes that uniform personal magnanimity and devotion to the cause and its candidates which characterizes his life, and will be read with pleasure and profit by all who respect him. Let its admonitions be responded to by every republican heart. Due notice of the time and place where Gov. Seward will address the people of Michigan will be given hereafter.

Elsewhere we publish the advertisement of the Quaker City insurance company of Philadelphia. The reputation of this company is that of a safe and reliable institution. The Wall Street underwriters, the New York Insurance Monitor, the Chicago Insurance and Railway Register, leading authorities in everything that pertains to insurance, all concur in pronouncing it deserving of a front rank among the prominent companies of the country. The Chicago papers are unanimous in their commendation of the energy and efficiency of its officers, and the prompt and liberal spirit with which its losses are settled and paid in that city and state, where its business is very large. The business of this company in this state is under the special supervision of E. B. Boies, the state agent, who, we are informed, is an experienced and competent insurance man. Office in this city directly under the office of this paper.

SUPREME COURT.—The summer term of the supreme court commenced yesterday.

MORE THAN FIFTY NEW ENGLAND BANKS use the same plate for $100 bank bills as that recently counterfeited on the Newton Bank of Mass. It is a perfect copy and has deceived the best judges, so look out.

NEW CORN (roasting ears) is among the luxuries that the editor of the Ohney Times, in Richland county, ("Egypt") is enjoying. Early.

THE weather has been very fine for maturing the wheat crop, during the past week, and the prospect is as good as ever for an extraordinary yield.

BANKERS' ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the bankers' association of this state has been, and perhaps still is, in session in this city. As its meetings are private, we know nothing of its transactions, except a street rumor that the question of receiving Illinois currency on deposit or at par is among the subjects of discussion.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET IN MISSOURI.—The republicans of Missouri now have a full state as well as electoral ticket in the field. John B. Gardinier, of Jefferson city, is the candidate for governor. It is the best ticket in the field, and it is thought there is a possibility of electing it.

BRECKINRIDGE STOCK RISING.—The Milwaukee Sentinel says that at the meeting of the common council of that city on Saturday night last, a few sales lots of wheat at 80 cents for good to choice, a few sales lots of corn at 22 1/2 cents. The tendency is rather downward for all kinds of grain. Accounts of the new crop continue to come in favorable from all directions.

Pole Raising at Richmond.

MESSRS. EDITORS.—By the merest accident, I attended a pole raising and mass meeting of republicans of the town of Richmond, yesterday, and as your local was not on hand, will report for him.

The pole is 125 feet above ground, and flies from its topmost height a splendid flag, the stars and stripes, with the names of Lincoln and Hamlin blazoned on its ample folds. The meeting was large and enthusiastic, and was addressed in an able manner by Messrs. Cheesey, Noble and Vincent, the two former of Whitewater, and the latter of Rock. Mr. Noble was the orator of the occasion, and he did it amply justice. The Whitewater brass band was present and discoursed such music as few other bands in the state are capable of doing.

The meeting was held in a beautiful grove near the "Old Child's stand," well known in those days, when the products of our soil had to be learned all the way to Milwaukee on wagons; but this day of rail roads has shorn it of its glory and usefulness; its hotel has departed, and the crowds who knew it so well in those days, will know it no more. Hon. John F. Potter was re-nominated for congress by acclamation, and Hon. Butler G. Noble instructed to notify the mass meeting, to be held in Milwaukee to-day, of the fact, and request them to ratify the same.

The utmost enthusiasm and good feeling prevailed throughout, and the meeting adjourned with three times three for Lincoln and Hamlin. Taking it altogether, it was a fine affair, and I have seldom enjoyed anything of the kind better. Yours,

VINDEK.

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM EUROPE.—The steam ship Africa has arrived, bringing Liverpool dates to the 30th. Garibaldi continues his preparations for a new government. Disturbances had taken place at Naples, which had been declared in a state of seige. Indemnatory proclamations had been issued calling upon the people to rise, and the commissaries of the twelve districts of Naples had been attacked, the agents murdered and the archives burnt. The captured American vessels had been released in consequence of the energetic demands of the American minister, who was assisted by the presence of the ship of war Troquois. The king of Naples has granted a new liberal constitution.

The horse which was stolen from A. A. Keith, of Johnstown, was recovered at Shopshire. The thief has not been taken.

AFFAIRS IN ITALY.—A letter from London, under date of June 23, says:—

It is said that Garibaldi has an agent and money here in London to purchase eight first class fast passenger steamers to carry on the war by land and sea against the King of Naples. There is no variation whatever in the tenor of the news from Sicily and southern Italy. It is constant success and progress for Garibaldi and his side, and disaster, disquietude and no action whatever on the part of the unlucky and discomfited gentry of Naples. It is said that his majesty's advisers declare that if the kingdom and throne are given up the city of Naples shall first be burned to the ground. Such an act of vandalism will cut off all chance of a Bourbon ever possessing another crown in Italy.

By the steamer that leaves here a week from to-day you will probably get news of the landing of a division of Garibaldi's army in Calabria, or perhaps near Naples itself. The latter, however, will not be attempted probably until the reinforcement of his fleet of steamers from England. Certainly this campaign of Garibaldi's is the most extraordinary ever recorded in history. And this great hero is the little man that used to sell segars and dip candles to earn an honest living when he was a poor exile in New York.

Life Insurance.

Those desiring this safe and cheap protection for their families, can secure it in our Wisconsin company. It is already in force, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is conducted in a manner that life insurance can be had as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state. We take up the demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented" we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, southwest corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

THE POPE seems to be very "hard up." Archbishop Hughes, appealing to the Catholics of America for contributions to help his Holiness, says: "An American prelate, lately returned from Rome, intimates that this aid cannot reach the holy father too soon. He has to sustain, as yet, the expenses of the papal government, while the resources, to a great extent, have been cut off. It has even been intimated that if things go on as they are now for any prolonged period, the Pope will not have the means to supply the wants of his own household."

The tendency seems rather downward for all kinds of grain. Accounts of the new crop continue to come in favorable from all directions.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter none forward; common to best samples of spring 90 cents.

CORN—dull at 20 cents per 56 lbs, shell; red 22 cents per 70 lbs.

BARLEY—dull at 21 cents per bushel.

POTATOES—plenty at 20 cents per bushel for good to choice ones.

Butter—dull at 11 cents.

Eggs—quite scarce; best of the season 12 cents per dozen. We quote them at 12 cents.

MEATS—cured, 6 cents; dry salt, 12 cents.

POULTRY—spring at retail, 75 cents, winter, 3.50.

WOOL—tanges at 20 cents per pound for common to best quality, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Tuesday, Evening, July 10.

REBATES—the supply of beef cattle during the week was light and the market necessarily quiet, with but little variation in prices. Yesterday, when, under a good local and fair shipping demand, the yards were entirely cleared at an improvement of 6 cents. Fat cattle and cows were in good request by butchers at 30 cents, and all that were offered found ready buyers.

There was also a good demand for hogs at 2.00 per 100, and all that were offered found ready buyers.

As the grass in the interior is very good, the receipts will not likely be heavy till a demand takes place by beef packers, unless eastern markets advance sufficiently to enable shippers to buy freely.

200 cattle sold from 2.25 to 2.75.

200 cattle sold from 2.50 to 3.00.

Hogs from 5.25 to 5.40. All sold.

Sheep from 2.75 to 3.25 per head. A few light sheep at 2.00 to 2.25. All sold.

Half Fare to Beloit.

By the following arrangement of the railroads it will be perceived that those who desire to attend the grand republican mass meeting at Beloit on Friday, will be accommodated at half fare. The departure of two trains from this city, morning and evening, will enable such of our citizens as wish to attend, to participate in at least a portion of the doings of the day and evening.

There will be an excursion train from Milton, connecting with the regular passenger train from Madison, Stoughton and Edgerton for Beloit, on Friday, July 13th, leaving Janesville at 9 o'clock A. M., connecting at Plymouth with a special train from Monroe and Brodhead. All the trains will meet at Plymouth about 9:15 A. M. Half fare from all parts—sixty cents from Janesville to Beloit and return.

These trains will all return after the torch-light procession, &c., in the evening. Persons who cannot leave on the morning train, can leave Janesville at eight in the evening, and arrive at Beloit before nine, in time for all the displays. Half-fare in this train same as the other.

BASE BALL.—At a meeting of the new base ball club on Tuesday evening the following name was selected, and officers elected—Palmer Base Ball Club.

President—A. C. Fish.
Vice-President—S. P. Cole.
Secretary—C. E. Harwood.
Treasurer—Ira B. Dutton.

The club will meet for practice this evening at 6 o'clock, on the grounds of the Junior City Club.

There will also be a meeting on Saturday evening at J. A. Sleeper's office, at 8 o'clock, to transact business of the club.

C. E. HARWOOD, Secretary.

Elsewhere we publish the advertisement of the Quaker City insurance company of Philadelphia. The reputation of this company is that of a safe and reliable institution. The Wall Street underwriters, the New York Insurance Monitor, the Chicago Insurance and Railway Register, leading authorities in everything that pertains to insurance, all concur in pronouncing it deserving of a front rank among the prominent companies of the country. The Chicago papers are unanimous in their commendation of the energy and efficiency of its officers, and the prompt and liberal spirit with which its losses are settled and paid in that city and state, where its business is very large. The business of this company in this state is under the special supervision of E. E. Boies, the state agent, who, we are informed, is an experienced and competent insurance man. Office in this city directly under the office of this paper.

SUPREME COURT.—The summer term of the supreme court commenced yesterday. The list of cases to be argued is a large one.

A DEMOCRATIC REPRESENTATIVE.—In Winona, Minn., a calf with two heads, two mouths and four eyes, is on exhibition under the descriptive appellation of a democratic animal.

MR. SINCLAIR'S LECTURE.—The Milwaukee Free Democrat says of Mr. Sinclair, who is to give two temperance lectures in this city next Sabbath—"The lecturer is a very pleasing speaker, and presents the subject in an earnest, truthful manner, and holds his audience in wrapt attention while he speaks. He is one of the best lecturers on this subject we have heard in a long time, and we would advise all friends of the cause to hear him."

MORE THAN FIFTY NEW ENGLAND BANKS use the same plate for $100 bank bills as that recently counterfeited on the Newton Bank of Mass. It is a perfect copy and has deceived the best judges, so look out.

NEW CORN (HOASTING EARS) are among the luxuries that the editor of the Olney Times, in Richland county, ("Egypt") is enjoying. Early.

THE weather has been very fine for maturing the wheat crop, during the past week, and the prospect is as good as ever for an extraordinary yield.

BANKERS' ASSOCIATION.—A meeting of the bankers' association of this state has been, and perhaps still is, in session in this city. As its meetings are private, we know nothing of its transactions, except a street rumor that the question of receiving Illinois currency on deposit or at par is among the subjects of discussion.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET IN MISSOURI.—The republicans of Missouri now have a full slate as well as electoral ticket in the field. John B. Gardinier, of Jefferson city, is the candidate for governor. It is the best ticket in the field, and it is thought there is a possibility of electing it.

BRECKINRIDGE STOCK RISING.—The Milwaukee Sentinel says that at the meeting of the common council of that city on Saturday night last, to elect a city printer, six votes were cast for the forthcoming Breckinridge paper, the Enquirer, and Mr. Heub. schmann made a speech showing how important it was to support a democratic paper that was "sound on the goose."

THE Pope seems to be very "hard up." Archbishop Hughes, appealing to the Catholics of America for contributions to help His Holiness, says: "An American prelate, lately returned from Rome, intimates that this aid cannot reach the holy father too soon. He has to sustain, as yet, the expenses of the papal government, while the resources, to a great extent, have been cut off. It has even been intimated that if things go on as they are now for any prolonged period, the Pope will not have the means to supply the wants of his own household."

MESSRS. EDITORS.—By the merest accident, I attended a pole raising and mass meeting of republicans of the town of Richmond, yesterday, and as your local was not on hand, will report for him.

The pole is 125 feet above ground, and flies from its topmost height a splendid flag, the stars and stripes, with the names of Lincoln and Hamlin blazoned on its ample folds. The meeting was large and enthusiastic, and was addressed in an able manner by Messrs. Cheaney, Noble and Vincent, the two former of Whitewater, and the latter of Rock. Mr. Noble was the orator of the occasion, and he did it amply justice. The Whitewater brass band was present and discoursed such music as few other bands in the state are capable of doing.

The meeting was held in a beautiful grove near the "old Child's stand," well known in those days, when the products of our soil had to be teamed all the way to Milwaukee on wagons; but this day of rail roads has shorn it of its glory and usefulness; its hotel has departed, and the crowds who knew it so well in those days, will know it no more. Hon. John F. Potter was re-nominated for congress by acclamation, and Hon. Butler G. Noble instructed to notify the mass meeting, to be held in Milwaukee to-day, of the fact, and request them to ratify the same.

The utmost enthusiasm and good feeling prevailed throughout, and the meeting adjourned with three times three for Lincoln and Hamlin. Taking it altogether, it was a fine affair, and I have seldom enjoyed anything of the kind better. Yours,

VINDEK.

IMPORTANT NEWS FROM EUROPE.—The steam ship Africa has arrived, bringing Liverpool dates to the 30th. Garibaldi continues his preparations for a new government. Disturbances had taken place at Naples, which had been declared in a state of siege. Inflammatory proclamations had been issued calling upon the people to rise, and the commissaries of the twelve districts of Naples had been attacked, the agents murdered and the archives burnt. The captured American vessels had been released in consequence of the energetic demands of the American minister, who was assisted by the presence of the sloop of war Iroquois. The king of Naples has granted a new liberal constitution.

THE horse which was stolen from A. A. Keith, of Johnston, was recovered at Shopiere. The thief has not been taken.

AFFAIRS IN ITALY.—A letter from London, under date of June 23, says:—

It is said that Garibaldi has an agent and money here in London to purchase eight first class fast passenger steamers to carry on the way by land and sea against the King of Naples. There is no variation whatever in the tenor of the news from Sicily and southern Italy. It is constant success and progress for Garibaldi and his side, and fear, vacillation, disquietude and no action whatever on the part of the monarchy and discomfited army of Naples. It is said that his majesty's advisers declare that if the kingdom and throne are given up by the city of Naples shall first be burned to the ground. Such an act of vandalism will cut off all chance of a Bourbon ever possessing another crown in Italy.

By the steamer that leaves here a week from today you will probably get news of the landing of a division of Garibaldi's army in Calabria, or perhaps near Naples itself. The latter, however, will not be attempted probably until the reinforcement of his fleet of steamers from England. Certainly this campaign of Garibaldi's is the most extraordinary ever recorded in history. And this great hero is the little man that used to sell cigars and dip candles to earn an honest living when he was a poor exile in New York.

LIFE INSURANCE.—Those desiring this safe and cheap protection for their families, can secure it in the Wisconsin company. It has already become, in reality, a state institution, having agents and patrons among the best business men in all the principal towns in the state. It is no longer a matter of doubt that life insurance can be conducted as well in Wisconsin as in Connecticut or any other eastern state.

While daily demands that men should insure their lives, it also demands that they should keep their money for investment at home. Confident that our success has been more than equal to that of the most "unprecedented" we would cordially invite all our citizens to call at the office, northeast corner of Main and Wisconsin streets, and examine for themselves.

S. S. DAGGETT, President.
A. W. KILLGORE, Secretary.
Messrs. Pilsley & Harlow, produce dealers, and Capt. Geo. S. Dodge will receive applications for insurance in this company, and will also be happy to give information as to the conditions thereof, to any one desirous of being informed, in Janesville.

RESPECTFULLY, YRS.,

W. M. ADY.
